

The University of Oxford Appoints Tram Anh, CFTE's Co-founder, as an Entrepreneurship Expert

London 30 July 2021 - Tram Anh Nguyen, Co-Founder of the Centre for Finance, Technology, and Entrepreneurship (CFTE), has joined the Entrepreneurship Centre of Saïd Business School, the University of Oxford as an Entrepreneurship Expert. In addition to continuing with her leadership position at CFTE, Tram Anh will be joining Oxford's oNetwork, a community of highly experienced entrepreneurs and business leaders who share their expertise with Oxford Saïd students and alumni. Tram Anh's new position strengthens the ties between CFTE and Oxford with a shared vision to groom talent for the entrepreneurial world.

Tram Anh's journey in the realm of Fintech and entrepreneurship has been nothing short of phenomenal. Since she started her career, she championed the mission to bring more people into Fintech and entrepreneurship and chose to challenge everyone to tackle the challenges of financial inclusion, and to uplift women worldwide - whether, through better credit access, financial education or supporting women-led businesses and entrepreneurs. Today she is the co-founder of CFTE, one of the fastest-growing e-learning platforms in Fintech and in Digital Finance for professionals to help up-skill people in a rapidly changing industry transformed by emerging technologies. With CFTE, she continues to push forward her mission to educate tens of thousands to insure that everyone has the opportunity to build skills thrive in financial technology, making the industry much more diverse and inclusive.

As Tram Anh continues to forge forward to nurture the next generation of entrepreneurs and professionals, she has taken the next big step in achieving her goals by joining the Entrepreneurship Centre of Saïd Business School, University of Oxford as an Entrepreneurship Expert. She will be joining a highly experienced and knowledgeable community of experts from a dynamic set of professional backgrounds in blockchain, machine learning, i-gaming, cryptocurrencies, fintech, mining and more, to help advance entrepreneurship and innovation in the Oxford ecosystem and beyond.

“I have always endeavoured to help people remain at the centre of disruption in Fintech and Entrepreneurship by working towards making the right skills, knowledge and mentorship accessible to all, in order to encourage a more diverse and inclusive industry. As a passionate entrepreneur myself, I am honoured to be joining the University of Oxford as an Entrepreneurship Expert to share my expertise and learnings, and bolster the growth of the next generation of innovators and entrepreneurs. I look forward to working alongside all of the stakeholders and exceptional fellow Entrepreneurship Experts.”, Tram Anh Nguyen, Co-founder, CFTE.

In addition to continuing with her leadership position at CFTE, Tram Anh will provide the centre with valuable insights stemming from her extensive experience as both a finance professional and an entrepreneur who has co-founded one of the fastest-growing knowledge platforms in Fintech and in Digital Finance. She also hope to share her expertise from her role of leading some of the largest programmes of education at scale in Fintech and Entrepreneurship in the US, Europe, Middle East and Asia.

Tram Anh looks forward to strengthening the relationship between the University of Oxford and CFTE with her acceptance of the Entrepreneurship Expert position. She notes that their shared vision to to educate and nurture talent for their entrepreneurial journey and professional careers is one that can have a positive effect on the future of business.
