

CFTE as a Community Partner with Bloomberg Tech London 2024

London, United Kingdom [2nd October 2024]- CFTE is proud to announce its role as a Community Partner at Bloomberg Tech London 2024, one of the year's most anticipated technology events.

Bloomberg Tech London, hosted by Bloomberg, the global financial data and media powerhouse, will leverage the capabilities of the world's largest newsroom, Bloomberg Intelligence, and Bloomberg Global Data. The event is renowned for its high-level discussions and news-making conversations driven by industry experts and thought leaders. With panel discussions, keynote speeches, and networking sessions, offering attendees invaluable insights into the future of technology, data, and finance.

CFTE as a Community Partner, spotlighting key discussions and providing insights into fintech education, we have an exclusive 40% discount to our CFTE community. Attendees can also explore CFTE's specialised programs on Fintech, AI, and Digital Assets, designed to equip professionals with the skills needed in a rapidly evolving financial landscape.

As of the first half of 2024, global investment in the fintech sector reached $51.9 billion (KPMG, 2024), underscoring the importance of innovation in the sector. With its comprehensive programs on emerging technologies, CFTE will ensure that its audience gains cutting-edge insights on how AI, digital assets, and fintech are reshaping industries.

Speakers at Bloomberg Tech London 2024 include industry leaders, technologists, and policy influencers. With its deep connections to the world of fintech and education, we look forward to meeting bright individuals and industry experts at the summit.
